

GORYDON

MILLIKAN HIGH SCHOOL, LONG BEACH
COR-Y-DON (KOR-IDEN) NOUN. IN PASTORAL LITERATURE, A NAME FOR A SHEPHERD OR RUSTIC

Robert Andrew Millikan High School
2800 Snowden Avenue Long Beach, CA 90815

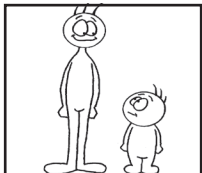

Volume LIX
<http://lbmillikan.schoolloop.com>

Issue 4
April 2016

Break Busted

Page 2

The Reason Why Short
People Are Always Angry

Page 3

Tragedy for Millikan Swim

Page 4

Senior Struggles With College Acceptance

By The Artist Formerly Known as Sophie Morrison
Comic Sans, Size 32

The college process can be stressful and exhausting, but one QUEST senior has it worse than most.

Mallory Towers is asking that you keep her in your thoughts and prayers after she received admission to both Harvard and Yale.

Her friends and family are offering their full support as Towers goes through this tough time. “It’s hard,” says her sister Molly.

“She is so conflicted.” We started a GOFUNDME page if you want to help us during this incredibly difficult time.”

Towers has been documenting her struggles on her Pulitzer Prize-winning blog, “It’s Hard Being Mallory”, and she has reported that this awful situation has caused her to lose 5 pounds, as well as clear up her skin.

Her family is asking for attention during this trying time and is also requesting that friends and admirers allow the family to use their HBOGO logins.

Cruisin’ to Class in Golf Carts

By Urb
Millenial

We all see the support staff cruising around school on golf carts and perhaps you are thinking they would a great way to get to class on time.

Golf carts for students will be available next year. Whenever you need one to go from one side of campus to the other, get in line at the cart stop.

Rules for riding include driving on the right side to avoid crashes, being sixteen years or older, and parking it in the designated cart stops. Cart stops will be located all across campus.

PHOTO BY KEYLA CAMPOS

Students will soon take golf carts to class in the new school year.

Senior Graduation Postponed

By Captain Tired-Pants
Bitcoin Trust Fund Managers

Every action has an equal and opposite reaction. Due to the large number of senior absences, the school board has voted to extend the academic year in order to make up those lost days.

Seniors are in an uproar because many colleges start in August and the grads will not have enough time to enjoy summer vacation.

High schools are prepared to withhold diplomas if students decide to strike and not attend school.

Hot-Takes Implode Internet

By FLEXistential Crisis
I don’t work here.

Late Monday night, the core of the Internet, like, the mainframe or something, died in an apparent implosion of “hot-takes” according to Unix philosophy professor Autist McGomes of UC Berkeley. Hot-takes on the TL just about headed a modern-day Tiananmen Square massacre, a Mao-ist hot-take fascism, against bearable conversation.

Take, for instance, widely known hot-take supreme Charlez Dawkins, on a more innocent note last night: “It isn’t Guy Fawkes Day. It isn’t New Year. It isn’t even a weekend. WHY are there fireworks, terrifying the dogs & other non-human animals?”

That hot-take was akin to your father yelling in his Honda CRV, beating his steering wheel about why Kobe is better than Michael Jordan.

Or, the 23 year old white college liberal, posting to his wall that we should rename Trumpo as Drumpf, ignoring, and probably undermining, the history of plenty of European immigrants changing their surnames anyways, just emitting hot-takes rather than actually doing any activism for their progressive cause, let alone voting because they forgot to register to vote on time.

Corporate executives, lounging in adjacent hammocks in the eternal depths of fire and brimstone, just absolutely fire off a mind-blowing #relatable hot-take on the Kardashian, American Horror Story, American Apparel, and unreasonably expensive make-up advertising account @dory: “do you ever look at your best friend and think MY LIFE WOULD SUCK WITHOUT YOU I LOVE YOU SO MUCH THANKS FOR EXISTING bc I do all the time”.

Known hot-take connoisseur @atheistandproud sizzles and stirs away a firey plate of simmering think-pieces on the TL, scorching, sizzling hot-takes with smoke rearing out of every take. First comes “Are Participation Trophies Why Millennials Can’t Move Out?”, and then, bam, another three-page diatribe on ageist views - “Are Millennials Getting High On Twitter Verification?”

One hot-take in particular may have pushed the barriers of bearable opinions overhead. A 12 year old girl known only as “spooky merry pumpkin spice meme lady” posted on Twitter late last night (trigger warning): “idk who david bowie is but hes daddy #rip”.

A Krusty Situation

By Harlequin
Millenial

Imagine walking into class and your desk is no longer there. Instead there’s a grill with patties sizzling on it.

Nightmare, right? No, for Millikan faculty and students this is a reality. Millikan is getting overhauled to become a Krusty Krab restaurant.

“This school thing really wasn’t working out. And hey, everyone loves burgers,” says Rockhannah Circleskirt. So prepare to trade in your pencils for spatulas and get ready for underpaid labor.

Cheslin: Starting Fresh

By That One Guy
Asst. Superficial Editor

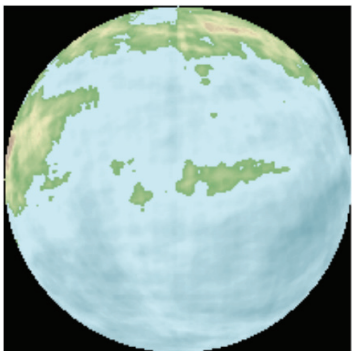

A new country was formed just this month in the Gámin Sea. Residents proclaimed it as Cheslin. It gained independence from Checkars, a neighboring country, and seeks to become a global superpower.

The country is home to 3,125,469 inhabitants who consider themselves as Cheslandish and speak Ches as their official language. They still do not have an actual flag yet, but it will most likely include black and white squares all over.

The Ches was once invaded by the Checks during the 1700s and became a colony. However, after hundreds of years rebelling, the nation was finally granted state-hood after winning a board-game tournament.

We are known for our champions in chess, checkers, and Connect Four, and now we will be known for our great economy and military.” Prime Minister Bak Gammon says, “We will become a nation that will be known to all.

An Impractical Joke

By Mock Twain
Millenial

The Daily Bugle has issued an apology to their readers in response to their April Fool’s Day Issue.

On the first day of April, the Daily Bugle published an issue filled with phony news stories, including a tampered UFO sighting photo, Barack Obama’s supposed conversion to Islam, and the ludicrous claim that Donald Trump was running for president.

The false information has had consequences. Over 70 families relocated because of the news reports of North Korea mobilizing in the Pacific. And an inaccurate new gun law restriction led the NRA to lead an armed NRA protest on Bellflower Blvd.

The issue was met not only with backlash from the public, but with a considerable amount of lawsuits.

In response, the Daily Bugle stated, “Our bad. We didn’t know anyone still read print news.”

BONUS

Videos & Stories

— on —

lbmillikan.schoolloop.com/

Corydon

Caped Wonder Stuns
City

Dear Editor

“Basketball or Dancer?”

In one of the recent issues, TSEUQ junior, Joey Jerome Jackson, defending the ring in the first round of the CIF play-offs. Overall I’m really digging this pic. It brings me baskets of joy. Ha! Did you get that joke? Tbh- I’m really confused on the purpose of this picture. Is the dude like supposed to be playing basketball or dancing in the court??? Please consider this next time when taking these “shots.” Hahahaha! Did you get that one? Oh my lord, I crack my own egg!

Huevos Rancheros
Grade 3

“Papa’s Finna Tell a Story”

Sit down son, im’ma learn you a thing. You need to understand, im not tryna sing. Preachin’ is hard and so is life, so grow on up son and get you a wife. Work hard and be tough, don’t stop unless you sho’ had enough. But the moral of the story is this, you take drugs and you’ll end up in a dark abyss. So what im learnin’ to you iz, stay away from drugs and be good kidz.

Papa Raps
Grade 42

“Political Correctness: The Way to Be”

I just have two words. I’m offended. You played the liberal citizens of the United States as weak and easily hurt. We just vouch for all people to be treated with respect and with dignity no matter what trait that makes them different from you. And in return you have belittled us to the whole population. Next time, think about others.

Harold Hurt
Grade 5

“Aliens vs. Dragons”

Dragons are actually very intelligent as well as athletic. They contain special skills just like the rest of us and aliens underestimate the battle they will be going in to. It’s only a matter of time until the battle takes place. The aliens have been talking a lot about their advanced weaponry that they used during previous battles, but they aren’t considering the dragons evolving in weaponry as well.

A Friend
Grade 12

Break Busted By Bored of Education

By Writer Die
Asst. Hot-Take Editor

Long Beach Unified School District has recently released one of the most shocking notifications of its time. Spring Break for the 2016-17 school year has been condensed from the typical five-day break to a single day. That’s right, just 24 hours.

Superintendent Frank N. Stein has noted that due to a budget crisis spring break must be condensed. “It’s time we save some money around here. The students are encouraged to remain far from the classroom and voice their opinions in the school quad.

Sophomore Sally Sue says, “I think the protest is a great idea. I’m ready to fight the power!”

So bring your signs and pickets and prepare yourself for the most controversial spring break of all time. This should be a spectacle to remember, and then to forget.

kids won’t miss the extra days off.” Students have decided to protest the shorter break. Teachers and

Shocka Going for Gold

By That One Guy
Millennial

Last Saturday, Trump officially left his presidential campaign after losing in many national and state polls to rapper Shaka Locka Tame. The rapper, who was born and raised in I.D.Knowing, Georgia, started his campaign in April 2015 as an independent party and gained a colossal amount of support with his ideas. Mr. Tame has won all of the caucuses so far with a 30% lead over the other candidates. He pledges to get rid of taxes and make public transportation, such as buses, free. He also intends to make college free so anyone can get an education. He wants to raise the minimum wage so “everyone can have a decent home to live in, is able to eat a hot meal, and can save for other luxuries.” Trump dropped out of the presidential race with few words. “America will become great again, but not in my hands.” He left the audience jaw-dropped. Tame has made history being a non-politician winning the election. His supporters have also made petitions to elect Shaka as president earlier than intended. Congress has considered the offer a reality and might make the rapper president by June.

Two Star Crossed Lovers Die... and Take the Stage

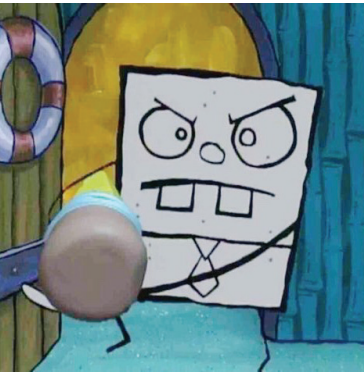

By Jiggles Kapaloni
Millennial

Ted Kotcheff, renowned director of the esteemed avant-garde film, Weekend at Bernie’s, has recently taken up his role as an artistic visionary once again, with his fresh off-Broadway interpretation of the classic Shakespearian tragedy, Romeo and Juliet. The decadent adaptation even features the authentic corpses of the original Elizabethan cast, reburied and exhumed fresh before every show, and handled by the crew who worked on Kotcheff’s breakthrough 1989 film. Despite the decomposition, the actors look and smell surprisingly good. Personally, I thought the acting could get a tad stiff at times, but this delivery added an unparalleled level of realism when Romeo and Juliet died in each other’s arms. Five stars.

A Pet’s Opinion

By RIP 3PAC
Another Editor

With the introduction of new sports at Millikan, the Cordyon decided to get thoughts from the people whose opinions matter the most: our pets. At the thought of Cricket, Fakethony Nametano’s dog, a Chilean SohCahToa, told us, “Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff Bark Ruff Ruff Ruff Ruff.” After this, he proceeded to wag his tail and smile at the reporter for 30 minutes, begging for a treat. Terrenth’s cat shared her thoughts with us on the introduction of Queen’s Croquet. Although the Bolivian Scoop cat did not audibly say anything, her actions spoke louder than any words could have. The cat sat there, waving its tail back and forth at a rate of 37.456 tail wags per minute, and stared at us, and titled it’s head. We understood completely. Sometimes the simplest reviews from your best friend are the only response you need.

I’m coming to YOUR English classes next! You have now been warned.

Trump Takes Long Beach

By Writer Die
Asst. Hot-Take Editor

Believe it or not, the infamous Donald Trump is now taking on little old Long Beach. He’s chosen our fab city to be his new headquarters for the remainder of the presidential campaign. Developers are currently mapping out plans to build the newest Trump Tower in Signal Hill. This area will be closed off until further notice. However, police personnel inform us that an investigation will be taking place to insure that all actions are 100% legal. Many are excited for the

Scientific Discovery: Fireflies Are a New Species

By Emotional Baggage
Hot-Take Editor

Scientists are astonished by the scientific discovery of our generation. In a recent study, a large population of fireflies gathered around a small town and began flashing their taillights in a formation no one had ever seen. This systematic blinking was only the beginning. Scientist, Al Burt, says, “A large flash broke through the dense layer of fog shortly before a meteor the size of a car struck the ground.” Scientists were shocked that their charts and statistics had predicted none of the events. College student, Mary Marian recalled, “The scientists were dumbfounded. Their eyes got wide with sheer horror when millions of little fireflies came swarming out of the meteor. Fireflies are ALIENS.” That was all the young student could offer us in her interview because she fainted for the fifth time since agreeing to discuss her first hand account of the event. “Technically speaking, these fireflies are born as alien larvae,” says an anonymous scientist who has been studying insects for years. When we consulted Tammy Rin, founder of Tamarins Inc., she professed, “I eat them all the time, I never would have thought they were aliens.” So readers, be wary. Scientists are in the process of discovering the potential harms of being around the newfound aliens.

The Corydon encourages its readers to submit letters of commentary on any school issue. Everytime you don’t recycle another star in the Milky Way implodes, leading to our impending doom. If you don’t recycle the blame goes on you 100%. All letters must be signed in blood with the writer’s full name and grade level and sent to Room 833.

Corydon Now Offline in ink on a piece of paper.

Co-Editors-in-Beef Microsoft FLEXel Don’t Be Frank With Me	Slacker Editor Cory in the Don Asst. Slacker Editor Sahara Swelkles	Editor Editors Little Huxtable Carrie Oakley $47,436/Year The Joker	Millennials Peter Parker Jiggles Kapaloni Bae Material Nommer Ici Jordan Gordan Betty Jean Nellie Ly Mock Twain Harlequin The Green Giant Name Urp
Superficial Editor Clark Kent Asst. Superficial Editor That One Guy	Hot-Take Editor Emotional Baggage Asst. Hot-Take Editor Writer Die	Bitcoin Trust Fund Managers Captain Tiredpants Zahara Shakyspeare
Another Editor RIP 3PAC I don’t work here. FLEXistential Crisis	Comic Sans, Size 32 The Artist Formerly Known As Sophie Morrison	Adviser Mrs. Doubtfire

Corydon Staff

Cor y don (Kor/iden) n. In pastoral literature a name for a shepherd or rustic

Now in Our 59th Year of Publication

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE LBPD
The hatred and resentment in the short ones eyes contrast the euphoria and content in the taller ones eyes.

The Reason Why Short People Are Always Angry

By Name
Millennial

See that short person over there? As you look down at him you can just see the anger in their eyes and the sour look on his face. You ask yourself, how can someone so tiny be so evil? A team of dedicated scientists at Harvard looked into this and have the answer. “These small ones are so angry because they have excess energy. Instead of using that energy to grow, it transfers into pure anger.” says Dr. Haywood U. Hugme.

They also said that these people are affected by outside factors, such as being mercilessly picked on. Taller peers like to point out that short people are short, steal their things and put them in unreachable places or even carry them. Unfortunately, they can’t fight back because they could just be picked up and thrown across the room. This is a growing problem across America, and is now emerging all across the globe. Please understand that your short friends may suffer so bend down and give them a hug.

Give a Skeleton of LOVE to the Undertale Club!

By Carrie Oakey
Millennial

Millikan has a skele-ton of clubs. And now a there is a new club related to Toby Fox’s Steam game, Undertale, a journey through a land of monsters in order to come back to the real world. This club is quite eccentric, considering its initiation. When a member joins the club, he gets a tu-Toriel on the club, including always to “catch the friendliness pellets”! Regarding new members, the president of the club, Frisk, a COMPASS junior, always says, “...”. The club is mainly focused on playing the game and trying to beat it. The members of the club match the feeling of the club. Senior PEACE secretary, Napstablook, says, “Here at the club, you’ll lie down as long as you don’t move.” This club will meet all your standards for fun, gaming, and a generally happy atmosphere. Nyeh-heh-heh-heh! I rate this club tem out of tem. Its very fun and the atmosphere isn’t serious. The members do what they like. Some of the members do nothing important such as make spaghetti and puns all day long, but it will fill you with determination to keep going to Millikan. QUEST freshman treasurer of the club, Mettaton, says, “If you join this club you’ll like it a metta-ton! Oh yeah!”

A Breath of Fresh Air is Going to Cost You

By Nommer Ici
Millennial

The United States has tis taking drastic steps to reduce the impact of global warming. Politicians first assessed the damage of burning fossil fuels, and with the help of top climate change experts, concluded, “The primary detriment to our planet is the contamination of oxygen by the combustion of fossil fuels. Plants simply cannot keep up with the rate at which we are destroying this precious resource.”

In the hopes of cutting down on pollution, Congress placed a tax on oxygen, to be calculated on an individual basis based on height, weight, and age. “This tax was implemented to protect the environment and help the country reduce emissions and keep our oxygen clean. The more oxygen, the lower the tax,” announced Congress. There has been an unexpected backlash, however, and protests have since broken out nationwide. Protestors refuse to pay the tax, and have sworn to quit oxygen in order to prevent their “money hungry” government from finding yet another way to steal their hard earned dollars. One protestor at a hate rally said “The government placing a tax on our oxygen use is absurd! We are taking it in our own hands, only the people of this nation should control the amount of oxygen they consume.”

According to spectators, most protests broke out spontaneously, with groups rallying around a central leader and collectively ending their oxygen consumption with one large breath. Authorities have stated that these guerilla protests “don’t last more than five minutes, and the whole group seems to drop to the ground in defiance at approximately the same time. It’s the strangest thing we’ve seen in a while.”

By Nellie Ly
Millennial

Many of you know April 1 is the most dangerous day of the year. According to studies made by the International school of Holidays, April 1 has had the most accidents because a lot of people try to prank their friends sand usually take it too far. In 1738 someone tried to prank a friend by adding

Church of Kenya East Wants Your Money

Cory in the Don
Feature Editor

Well everyone, it looks like we have a new religion. Forget whatever beliefs were intact prior to Kenya East’s existence. You can worship Kenya now. For those of you who don’t know who Kenya East is for some reason... what rock are you living under? Kenya East? The legend? The gift to the world? The return of Jebus Cripes? Kenya, man! Kenya just dropped a new album this February. It’s called “Life of Jose.” It features instant classics such as “Fake Friends”, “30 Seconds”, “No More Parties in Topeka” and “Father Stretched My Existential Crisis” “I’m not a rapper” says East on Tweeter. “I am a visionary, a beautiful spectacle. People bask in my ingeniousness wherever I go. I mean, I am Kenya East after all, and Kenya East does whatever she wants. Here’s a bit from one of KEasts new raps “I’m Rather Fond of Kenya.” “I Miss the Old Kenya the not in debt Kenya Please pay your debts Kenya, They try to tell Kenya” Be sure to say your prayers to Kenya East tonight. And by pray, we mean send her money because this might surprise you, but she’s in some serious debt.

STRIKES AGAINST FINALS!!!!

PHOTO COURTESY OF BATMAN

Captain Tiredpants
Bitcoin Trust Fund Manager

Many students, predominately seniors and juniors, have decided to strike against finals. They believe finals aren’t fair because of the workload caused by AP testing, college preparation tests, and extra homework. They ask: Are finals really necessary? In one chemistry class, students left their pencils and backpacks at the door in order to strike against the final exam that was scheduled. A firealarm went off during a geometry final. It is believed that the act was in accordance to the strike. Many other classes are starting to follow the same trend, causing for the school board to postpone finals until they figure out what they are going to do in the meantime.

No School on April 1st (Woo!)

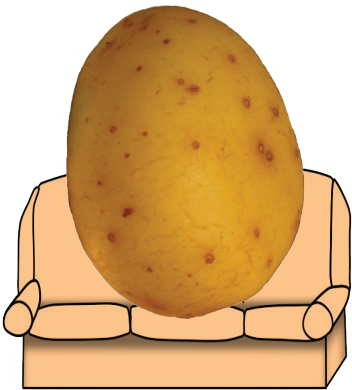

toothpaste to Oreos while recording himself committing this crime for YouTube views. The boy took the Oreo cookie, thinking it was going to be delicious, but when he took the first bite he noticed that whatever was in that cookie was burning his tongue. It turns out that the toothpaste contained some type of acid, and the tongue eventually fell off. I was lucky enough to get an interview with this young man to tell me what happened “ Ih eh aaaa” The horrors of this day are derived from one objective: to have a laugh. In the aftermath of a heated debate between school board members, it was decided that the welfare of the students come first, surprisingly, so school has been cancelled on this infamous day. Teachers will still have to attend meetings on this day.

Find Bonus Stories & Videos Online!

@lbmillikan.schoolloop.com/Corydon

Couch Potatoes Live Longer, Studies Suggest

By Sahara Swelkels
Asst. Slacker Editor

We have all been told our entire lives that the key to a long life is a healthy diet and exercise. However, scientists at Los Angeles Zepper Yollow (LAZY U) University suggest otherwise. Studies have shown that exercising over a long period of time can lead to multiple ailments, as well as long term injuries. The risk of heart attacks, torn muscles, and broken bones outweigh any real physical benefits. However, scientists have not forgotten about the obesity problem in the US. They are working on having the government fund liposuction and weight loss surgeries. So cancel your gym memberships and boycott P.E. Sitting around all day? That's my cup of tea.

Runner's High Epidemic

By RIP 3PAC
Another Editor

The term "runner's high" is coined by runners and scientists to describe the feel good sensation that runners get after running for long periods of time. Recently students at Millikan have been experiencing runner's high to a different degree. QUEST freshman Belle E. Ving says, "Oh yeah, like, I feel like kinda good man. I just ran maybe like three or something laps. I stopped counting after, like, you know, it kicked in." Anatomy teacher Brian N. Hart explains what he believes is happening. "It has to do with the human anatomy. The legs release this chemical, carbon oc-toxide, that travels to our brain and nullifies all pain that would make us want to stop running." Students are already flocking to the cross-country team to experience this sensation. "Oh man, running is great! Running is totally my favorite thing to do and I totally didn't just join the team to get runner's high. As a matter of fact, I ran seven miles to school," said Mai Fee Thurt. For medical reasons the district will soon regulate who will be allowed to join the cross country team.

Tragedy for Millikan Swim, Triumph for Millikan Sea Monkeys

By Jiggles Kapaloni
Millennial

Late last Sunday morning, a senior prank went horribly wrong. The locker room security tapes show the breaking and entering of what appears to be "two teen boys, or girls, it was dark, and you can never be sure nowadays," says Millikan custodian Scruples Metropolis. The two anonymous culprits were seen dumping thousands of sea monkey eggs into the pool. Unfortunately, due to some unforeseen genetic anomaly, the sea monkeys have proven immune to the chlorine that should have killed them, and now they are nearly twice the size of actual monkeys, which might be alright if they looked like the illustrations on the packaging. But they don't. The sea monkeys look like big scary shrimp. The tragedy set in around the time of discovery. The first boy into the pool on Monday morning, Josh Giacone, fell in after trying to text and walk at the same time. Giacone was immediately rushed down to the urgent care on Bellflower, after the sea monkeys bum rushed him and ate his entire torso. He is reportedly in stable condition, however his swimming and 3-D printing careers are likely to suffer. Things have only escalated with the introduction of venomous snakes. In the hopes of eradicating the sea monkeys, administration administered some 200-odd California native Diamondback rattlers, as it is a well-known fact that the amphibious creatures live on a strict sea monkey-only diet. However, some of the rattlers, having little to no training on the classic freestyle stroke, have drowned, and the sea monkeys are winning. Here are the scores.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Mutant Sea-Monkeys	12	8	16	40	93	7	14	3	200
Diamondback Rattlesnakes	2	3	5	5	6	19	1	18	5

Attendance Record Set at Badminton Game

By FLEXistential Crisis
I don't work here.

Millikan varsity badminton popped bottles in Greg's mom's basement after it set an unprecedented attendance record Monday night, a major milestone as D1 bound student-athletes drown in a mirage of ecstatic euphoria. After all, the moment 42-year old Banilla Ice, desperate for attention, stole a backpack left on the side of the court, the coach fainted at the sight of a brand new record: a single person in the audience of a Rams varsity game. Raymond Borje, a junior varsity player who is also varsity, sophomore, freshman, and coach, exclaims, "This has been the best thing that has ever happened to me since never, because time doesn't exist." President and Supreme Leader Barry B. Benson called into Corydon's hotline to congratulate Mr. Borje on his outstanding win/loss, as he played himself. Don't ever play yourself.

copyright notice: barry b benson, star of bee movie, is in a very sick and dying condition from flexing way too hard in the bee movie please let him lie in peace he will not bee photographed for this issue

Fungus Among Us

By Zahara Shakyspeare
Bitcoin Trust Fund Manager

"Ew, gross!" said Lara Infectica, a Millikan student, when she found out about the fungus lurking in the girls locker room. Twelve female athletes met with the principal, complaining that they were sure they got athlete's foot from the girls locker room. Believe it or not, the whole floor of the locker room was contaminated with the infectious fungus. The custodial staff at Millikan is trying to disinfect the room, but until they can find a temporary room for the girls to change in, the fungus will continue to spread. Now, over 100 girls have been infected. Melanie Fungala, one custodian said, "I refuse to clean it. It's disgusting, and I don't want to risk catching it myself." The fungus can spread person-to-person or b3" walking on contaminated floors.

Millikan's New Ball Game

By Urb
Millennial

Well you will hear it here first, fans! Millikan will be introducing cricket as a sport in the fall. Since so many students enrolled in P.E. want to switch out, they will be rescheduled onto cricket teams. Now I bet you're wondering, What is cricket? Cricket is a game that was created in Britain using a bat and a ball with teams of eleven. The field is twenty-two yards long. The objective of the game is to have the most runs. It's the forerunner of baseball. Tryouts will be on April 31. For more information, see Coach Jiminy.

Gender Swap in Basketball

By Nellie Ly
Millennial

Don't miss the biggest game of the year! The boys basketball coach says that there is a possibility that the girls basketball team will join to play against the Gluten Cookies of Brownie. "Yeah, they're kinda good but I'm sure if we add our girls we will be able to beat them," says Joe Joseph, 2013 MVP. The girls and boys team will be practicing together until game day. If the Rams actually win it they will go down in history for having the smartest idea ever. If you see any of the heroes who will be battling the Cookies on April 31 wish them luck because there is always the possibility of ankle breaking in the game.

GYMS HATE HIM!

Ladies love him!

Learn his one secret here!

Use Powerthirst to be like him!

Find out how he lost 50 pounds in 1 week!

Visit www.Powerthirst.com for more information.